

Sunday Newsletter 6th April 2025

Our next Get Together, vintage morning coffee will be on Monday 28th April 11-12.30pm with Jessica Fahy, Art Appreciation lecturer of international renown, “A talk on the Irish artist Paul Henry”. All are welcome to this fundraiser for the Centre. Some tickets €15 each, available at reception the Pastoral Centre. Raffle in aid of ASH Animal Rescue.

Senior Citizens Bingo Group will meet each Monday 2 – 4pm in Coffee Dock. All are welcome. Come along and enjoy the company and games. Great fun and prizes too.

Book Club next meeting will be this Tuesday, 8th April @10.30am in Coffee Dock and we will be reading Graham Norton’s book Frankie. All are welcome to join for lively discussion on these books.

Nutrition and Weight loss Class with Nichola Flood. Room 2, Wednesday, 9.30 – 10.30am. To enrol please contact Nichola via email info@thequeenofhealth.ie

Hats for the homeless the next meeting will be on Wednesday 9th April @ 10.30am in the Oval Room/Coffee Dock.

Falls Prevention -Weekly physiotherapist led balance classes continue Thursday mornings in the Murray Centre at 10.00am and a new second class at 11am. Class is 45 minutes duration. Please contact Sarah from ‘Ready Steady’ on 085 1771160 to enrol or for more information.

Film Club meet this week in Room 3, Thursday at 14.30 – 17.00. Viewing Funny Face starring Audrey Hepburn and Fred Astair. Come along, new members welcome. Enjoy the film, a cuppa and chat together.

St Nicholas Montessori are now accepting enrolments for new students commencing September 2025. Limited places available. To enquire please email Principal Mary Farrelly at mary.farrelly@smsi.ie

The Centre is accepting bookings for “Summer Camps” over the months of July and August 2025, for further information please contact the Pastoral Centre on ntppastoralcentre@gmail.com

The Coffee Dock is open Tuesday -Friday 9.30 – 12.30, and after the 9.30 & 10.45 masses today. All are welcome to come along and bring a friend for a chat.